

Thin cut building veneer that's transcendent in style and timeless in appeal.

It's the look that stops you in your tracks—a stone facade that defines a home, a hearth, an inviting corner of a country inn.

Where else do comfort and elegance live as beautifully together as in an expanse of natural stone?

Now Glen-Gery brings you stunning, authentic stone in a series of facing styles that deliver a world of design possibilities.

Endowed with the same precision in processing that has defined our products for over a century, our natural stone applications are the perfect building material to transform your home's exterior, add a breath-taking wall in any room, or bring vitality to a work area.

Glen-Gery Natural Stone is the perfect choice for:

- environmental excellence and the durability of genuine stone.
- enduring, true-to-nature colors that enrich any design project.
- exceptional variations and textures to suit every architectural style.
- eco-friendly quarried stone containing no chemicals or artificial ingredients.

GLEN-GERY NATURAL STONE PRODUCTS

FIELDSTONE

A blend of hand-selected, random shaped, naturally occurring fieldstone with variation in piece size. A variety of natural earth tones and rugged textures are available. Glen-Gery Natural Stone Fieldstone varieties have a diamond sawn back surface for quick and easy installation.

SQUARED

Both Fieldstone and Rustic Ledgerstone are also produced in roughly squared stone of assorted sizes. Diamond sawn on back surface provides uniform thickness for installation ease. A wide range of colors and textures along with unique stone blends and mortar applications add to the diversity of squared stone treatments.

RUSTIC LEDGESTONE

Assorted naturally weathered and split edge flat stacking stones provide a rustic, yet refined look. Masterfully quarried and hand sorted for premium quality. The split edges add to the visual appeal and the array of colors and textures artfully enhance a variety of design elements and architectural styles.
